

Don Miguel Lanz - Episode 1

At the Lanz residence

In this scene, Don Miguel stands up for his granddaughter and congratulates her about her engagement. His granddaughter makes him and the whole family very happy. Miguel tells Lorenzo to distribute glasses to everyone and says a toast. He doesn't fail to omit what joining these two people in marriage will do for the family businesses.

He notices the way Rosalinda and Ramirez are looking at each other. He lets it go, for the time being.

He starts quarreling with his son Roberto and his wife Olimpia, in which he reproaches Roberto for buying Olimpia an unnecessary and overly expensive car.

After some minor convincing, Miguel succumbs to his granddaughter Rosalinda's suggestion. She made him put up a dating ad, which he did, just to make her happy. His ad's tagline is "Never too late for love."

Roberto Lanz - Episode 1

At the Lanz residence

In this episode, Roberto hosts an engagement party. He strives to take care of everyone and make sure everybody is having a good time. However, he does not approve of the engagement between Rosalinda and Hernán that much. He doesn't believe in marriage of convenience.

However, a loud argument of Miguel and Olimpia interrupts the party. Roberto is a good husband, so it's clear whose side he's going to take.

Olimpia Lanz – Episode 1

At the Lanz residence

At the engagement party for her stepdaughter Rosalinda and her fiancé Hernán, Olimpia is as two-faced as she can be. That includes fake smiles, insincere laughter and too much enthusiasm over everything. She sips alcoholic beverages.

She takes a moment to drag Hernán aside and kiss him passionately.

During this episode, her argument with Miguel about money takes place.

Rosalinda Lanz – Episode 1

At the Lanz residence

Rosalinda is at her engagement party. Before she takes a sip after the celebration toast, she exchanges her glass with Hernán's in the name of love. She knows she should be having a great time and be happy, but for some reason, she doesn't feel that way.

She meets Ramirez at the party; he arrives there with his friend Adriana. When they get introduced, her heart starts pounding. They only speak together for a moment, but for the rest of the night, Rosalinda can't help herself but keep looking at him. Moreover, she feels he reciprocates.

Rosalinda also manages to convince her beloved grandfather to set up an online dating profile.

Before the episode ends, Rosalinda rushes to the cloakroom to steal Ramirez's coat just to have an excuse to encounter him again.

Carlos Lanz - Episode 1

At the Lanz residence

Carlos' sister Rosalinda is engaged to Hernán.

Adriana showed up at the party with that awful guy, Ramirez Pereira. It offends Carlos that she hangs out with such a shabby hobo and loser. Carlos would rather want Adriana for himself, and tries to seduce her.

Lorenzo Lorenz - Episode 1

At the Lanz residence

Lorenzo is the perfect servant; he makes acquaintance of everyone and strives to act as a great companion; however, there are great plans being spawned underneath this mask. He definitely registers all the snobs and phonies. The only person to talk to reasonably is the fiancé, whom Lorenzo finds very attractive.

Lorenzo distributes the glasses for the toast; before doing so, he poisoned Rosalinda's glass when no one was watching him and now he is waiting for what is going to happen. Whatever happens now, he will not interfere with the toast in any way.

Helena Pereira - Episode 1

At the Pereira residence

The family has come together to check out José Armando's new role. It's a disaster. He would do better if he got a factory job and finally started bringing some money home! He is just a freeloader! It's clear that this boy has no talent whatsoever! Furthermore, he hangs out with that slacker Carlos Lanz. Helena reproaches José Armando for everything at the first opportunity.

Consequently, Juan mentions an unexpected accusation. Helena is certain that it is work of José Armando. And she's going to give this butthead a piece of her mind about it!

Helena sees her granddaughter Valentina is upset about something. She comes to see her and tries to cheer her up. Valentina has an idea how to improve her situation. At first, Helena is hesitant to help, but Valentina finally convinces her and Helena accepts her offer.

Juan Pereira - Episode 1

At the Pereira residence

The family has come together to check out José Armando's new role. Juan sees clearly that José Armando will never be a good actor. He takes pleasure in describing his poor acting performance in a juicy way. For Maria's sake, Juan offers to arrange for José Armando to work at his shop as a shop assistant.

Subsequently, he mentions he has been missing money and asks the others whether they know anything about it. They hit a common note with his mother and he supports her opinion. Only Maria calms him down later.

Maria Medina - Episode 1

At the Pereira residence

The family has come together to check out José Armando's new role. Even though Maria loves her son, she sees clearly that he will never become a successful actor. He has no talent. Maria tries to convince him to quit acting and find a real job. It will be better both for him and for the family.

She is somewhat taken aback by Juan's accusation, but she lacks energy to say anything about it. She has to take some pills to regain her calm. She steps in to calm Juan down after a while, but it is too late. José Armando has made his decision and is adamant about it, and coming clean would make no sense.

Valentina Pereira – Episode 1

At the Pereira residence

Valentina is desperately in love with Carlos Lanz. Everyone can tell she is upset about something.

The family has come together to check out José Armando's new role. Although his performance is certainly flawed, Valentina trusts José Armando and supports him to continue in his acting career.

Valentina wants to forget about her unfulfilled love. She wants to find a nice guy and settle down. However, there are no suitable candidates around her. So she has an idea - an online dating site! She is afraid to get into it on her own. When Grandma Helena comes to see Valentina, Valentina convinces her to do the same and they put up their dating profiles together.

Ramirez Pereira - Episode 1

At the Lanz residence

Ramirez Pereira is at work. He is escorting Adriana Salazar to an engagement party. Ramirez has to pose as Adriana Salazar's boyfriend.

However, he falls in love with Rosalinda Lanz at the first sight. She became even more beautiful since the last time he saw her. His feelings bubble up to the surface only in hints and glances. After they get introduced, the couple exchanges a few words and spend the rest of the night glancing at each other. In the end, Ramirez leaves with Adriana. He is so confused he only finds out he left his coat at the party when he arrives home.

José Armando Medina - Episode 1

At the Pereira residence

José Armando calls the whole family together. A little while ago, he got his first role and today, the show is on TV. It is only an infomercial, but José Armando is proud of his performance. The infomercial is about a state-of-the-art revolutionary exercise machine.

José Armando listens to his family's opinions about his show. The subsequent accusation surprises him and he defends himself as much as he can.

Finally, he storms out of the house, angry. He doesn't want to be a nuisance to them.

Hernán Hernández - Episode 1

At the Lanz residence

Hernán is at his engagement party.

Olimpia invited everyone to see Hernán announce he got engaged with Rosalinda.

Olimpia takes Hernán aside for a moment and tells him how she feels about him.

During the toast, Hernán and Rosalinda exchange their glasses romantically before drinking from them. He drinks from his new glass and then praises the whole Lanz family.

Adriana Salazar - Episode 1

At the Lanz residence

Olimpia invited Adriana Salazar to a celebration. Rosalinda Lanz and Hernán Hernández are engaged. It is clear that the marriage will only be about money. Two great business enterprises will be joined by it.

Adriana took Ramirez Pereira as her escort; she paid him to pretend he was her boyfriend. He is her puppet; she bought him and now she treats him as an accessory. Adriana flirts with both Ramirez and Carlos a lot.

Don Miguel Lanz - Episode 2

At the Lanz residence

The dating ad was a success and Don Miguel is now maintaining regular correspondence with a mysterious beauty. He even receives a letter during this very episode.

If someone comes over, Don Miguel will treat them nicely and may even support them. Anyone - but a Pereira!

Roberto Lanz - Episode 2

At the Lanz residence

Roberto learns great news from Olimpia, in front of everyone else! This calls for a proper celebration. Roberto has a bit too much to drink and reproaches Hernán for not paying enough attention to Roberto's daughter. The whole marriage is a lie and there is no true love in Rosalinda and Hernán's relationship. He gives them his warm relationship with Olimpia as an example.

But all in all, he is even nicer to everyone than usual. Finally, he retires to his room, drunk, and suffers some nightmares.

Olimpia Lanz – Episode 2

She feels very sick to her stomach frequently; she finally went to the doctor and found out she was pregnant!

At the Lanz residence

In this scene, Olimpia announces her pregnancy to everyone. She emphasizes that she will finally become a mother to her own and WELL-BEHAVED child. She sips alcoholic beverages.

However, she cannot resist and tells Hernán that the baby is his and not Roberto's.

Rosalinda Lanz – Episode 2

At the Pereira residence

In this episode, Rosalinda goes to return Ramirez's coat to his house (she found his papers with the address in the coat's pocket).

Ramirez welcomes her in an shabby small house; he is clearly embarrassed, but glad to see her. They both try to make up some kind of conversation, but it's getting awkward as they don't know what to talk about. In the end, Rosalinda starts approaching him and kisses him.

But then, an old lady storms out of the adjacent room and starts kicking her out; Rosalinda doesn't understand it, but she knows better than trying to stick around.

Carlos Lanz - Episode 2

At the Lanz residence

Towards the end of the episode, José Armando Pereira comes to see Carlos. He begs Carlos to let him stay for some time at their house. Carlos agrees, but also gets approval from the other members of the family. In the end, Carlos gets his way and José Armando moves in.

Lorenzo Lorenz - Episode 2

At the Lanz residence

He also secretly listens in on the conversation between Hernán and Olimpia. He decides to keep it to himself for the time being.

He takes some time to talk with Hernán about Hernán's relationship with Olimpia and Rosalinda. Lorenzo asks Hernán whether he would be happier with someone else.

The dating ad bait took well and Lorenzo writes a reply to the letter he received.

Helena Pereira - Episode 2

At the Pereira residence

Helena wasn't even expecting it, but a dating ad caught her eye. He doesn't hesitate and writes a letter in response. Both she and the guy keep withholding their real names. She is quite taken with this man. Their messages are very passionate and full of poetic love.

Subsequently, Helena witnesses the mating call of Ramirez and Adriana. After a little while, she interrupts them and prohibits them from seeing each other. Her reasoning is that her family is responsible for the death of Ramirez's mother Natalia! And because of that, Ramirez must never see anyone from the Lanz family! But Helena doesn't want to add more conflicts into her own family, so she keeps Juan's adultery a secret as well as the fact that Ramirez and Rosalinda are siblings. After Adriana leaves, Helena tells Ramirez the whole story of their famil (apart from Juan's adultery) and she lets her deep hatred for the Lanz family bubble up to the surface.

Juan Pereira – Episode 2

At the Pereira residence

Finally, Juan and Maria found some time alone together and all their emotions are pouring out. If Juan has the opportunity, he will take it to kiss Maria passionately.

At one moment, he needs to start defending Maria, stand up for her, but to no avail. He doesn't want to believe what he hears! Finally, he forces Maria to tell him who is her supplier.

At the Lanz residence

Juan goes to see Hernán, beats him and wants him to promise he will never sell any more pills to Maria.

Maria Medina - Episode 2

At the Pereira residence

Finally, Juan and Maria found some time alone together and all their emotions are pouring out. Maria kisses Juan passionately.

After the accusation, Maria admits the truth. She tells Juan about all her sins. She wants to clear her son's name. She admits to the thefts and to her addiction to medicinal drugs. She doesn't want to reveal that it is Hernán who supplies her with the pills (after all, he is her other son), but in the end, Juan convinces her to say it. If the conversation comes to rehab, Maria will trivialize the whole thing and refuse.

Valentina Pereira - Episode 2

At the Pereira residence

In this episode, Valentina exchanges messages with an unknown man. They are full of poetic love. She is slowly falling for the unknown man. She is afraid of what's going to happen once they meet in person.

Lorenzo Lorenz - Episode 3

At the Lanz residence

In this episode, Lorenzo is watching everything with close attention. Lorenzo is very sorry about the mistake he made when he tried to poison Rosalinda. He takes care of Hernán, caters to him and doesn't fail to mention his fiancée left him completely alone when he needed her the most. Lorenzo may wish the worst on everyone, but not for Hernán. He gives Hernán an antidote to drink.

He continues to exchange letters with Valentina. Lorenzo never reveals his identity, but he sets up a blind date with her by the duck pond on the next day. But he actually never planned to show up for it. He only wants her to have some alibi for the period of time Lorenzo will accomplish his vengeance.

But something Lorenzo hasn't considered happens at the end of the episode. Who did it?

Helena Pereira - Episode 3

At the Pereira residence

At the beginning of the episode, Helena is in a foul mood, talking with her son Juan and his relationship with Maria. She advises Juan to pull the plug on Natalia, after ten years, and become a widower.

They also come to the topic of the financial situation in the family. Helena reproaches Juan for not being able to take care of the family. She tells him off like only an old bitter widow can.

Helena is exchanging letters with the unknown ad guy again. The time has come to reveal the real names. When Helena discovers who he is, she refuses to continue. She never wants to see the man or hear from him again. Despite that, she is aware of certain feelings she has for him.

Juan Pereira - Episode 3

Juan discovers that Hernán is suing him and requires compensation for going blind after the injury inflicted on him by Juan. The family property is about to be seized.

At the Pereira residence

Juan talks to his mother about his relationship to Maria. Leaving Natalia would be a terrible betrayal!

When mother advises him in this matter, he confesses the whole thing about the compensation and property about to be seized.

Subsequently, he seeks out Maria and professes his love for her. Juan tells Maria he is prepared to pull the plug on the machines keeping Natalia alive. It makes no sense to prolong her agony any longer.

The future is in the relationship of Juan and Maria.

Maria Medina - Episode 3

José Armando Medina - Episode 5

At the Pereira residence

José Armando returns home, upset. Many things happened here while he was gone. Uncle Juan has been shot and he is in a wheelchair now. José Armando refuses to believe it was Valentina. But all the evidence is against her and so, at the end of the episode, he suggests she flees while she still has the chance.

He knows Valentina will need money for her escape and so he asks his mother Maria for it. He reproaches Maria for giving all her money away for pills.

That is why he gives all his savings to Valentina.

Hernán Hernández - Episode 5

At the Lanz residence

Hernán will undergo many changes during this episode. Hernán braces himself with arrogance and evil words to form a shield around him, spitting poisonous words wherever he goes. He doesn't even regret it; he only regrets he won't be able to see Lorenzo as much.

Detective - Episode 5

At the Pereira residence

In this episode, the actress assumes the role of the Detective.

The Detective arrives to the Pereira house in the middle of the episode and announces that the case is clear enough now. Juan made a statement in the hospital and the evidence is overwhelming.

Valentina tried to shoot her father to death. Their motive was her disapproval of her father's relationship with Maria. The police has witnesses who saw both the argument and the shooting. The Detective informs Valentina that she must not leave the city. For the time being, she will not be taken into custody.

Carlos Lanz - Episode 7

At the Lanz residence

Adriana comes to see Carlos. She wants them to move in together. Carlos didn't dare hope for such fast development. He would love to move in with her. At least he will get some rest from his family.

But as it turns out, Adriana had a different idea in mind. In the end, Carlos agrees to her version.

At the end of the episode, Valentina comes over. And Carlos is still unable to say anything much. However, he does realise that she is more to him than he ever cared to admit.

Helena Pereira - Episode 7

At the Pereira residence

Helena understands that nothing but the terrible truth will prevent Rosalinda and Ramirez from seeing each other. To that end, she reveals the entire family history to Ramirez. She tells him Rosalinda is his stepsister!

Juan Pereira - Episode 7

At the Pereira residence

Juan is touched to find Maria is still with him. At the beginning of the episode, he gathers his courage and announces to Maria that he is prepared to file for divorce with Natalia. At the same time, he asks Maria to marry him.

In the second half of the episode, he supports Maria in her opinions.

The plot twist at the end of the episode leaves him speechless and he is unable to deal with it.

Maria Medina – Episode 7

At the Pereira residence

Maria decided to quit her pills addiction. She apologizes to all her loved ones and promises she will never take a single pill again. Subsequently, Juan would like to talk to her.

Shortly after, Maria gets the news that Radkéz Hernández died. According to his will, both his sons are to divide the inheritance, each taking one half.

Maria reveals to José Armando who is father was and tells him about the huge inheritance. However, the will has some conditions. Neither of the sons must be a drug addict or a homosexual. Maria was hardly surprised by Radkéz's homophobia. At last, the family got some luck. They need the money badly. José Armando must accept them.

Valentina Pereira - Episode 7

At the Pereira residence

Valentina is ready to leave and says goodbye to everyone. It is not easy to leave.

Jorge Lanz - Episode 8

At the Lanz residence

Lorenzo comes to Jorge and asks him inappropriate questions. Jorge hints to Lorenzo that he knows his secret. Jorge implies he knows that Lorenzo is a woman in disguise. However, he says nothing about it directly.

Then, Rosalinda comes to see Jorge and ask his advice. Jorge is snide and sarcastic.

Jorge wants to take over the family business after his father in order to be able to do with it as he pleases. His Japanese vengeance master is pushing him to finish the matters. Therefore, Jorge is trying to convince Don Miguel to surrender his position and give it to him. He is old and as everyone saw, he may die anytime.

Rosalinda Lanz – Episode 8

Some time has passed and Rosalinda is still desperately in love with her stepbrother Ramirez. Meanwhile, José Armando has become a famous actor and he arrived to visit his hometown with a beautiful Valeria Gomez.

At the Lanz residence

During this episode, Rosalinda talks to her father. She needs him to comfort her. He has always been the kindest daddy in the whole world and always understood her. Rosalinda hopes he will help her now, too.

She is upset and looks for diversion. Even though she doesn't feel anything for him, she succumbs to an unexpected seducer.

Carlos Lanz – Episode 8

Some time has passed. Living with Adriana is not what Carlos hoped it would be. He misses friendly Valentina. He realised he was in love with her. José Armando has become a famous actor. He comes to visit his home town together with Valeria Gomez. The tabloids write all about the indecencies the couple has been doing. Valeria is a real hottie and Carlos is happy for José Armando.

At the Pereira residence

Carlos comes over to the Pereira residence to seek out Valentina. He asks everyone where she is: Ramirez, Juan and even Helena.

To his surprise, the beautiful Valeria Gomez starts making advances towards him. He refuses her; he has been fooled by attractive looks once and he got burned badly.

Lorenzo Lorenz - Episode 8

At the Lanz residence

Lorenzo is investigating to find out more about the unknown attacker. He goes to see Roberto and asks him point blank.

In order to disprove all doubts about his sex, Lorenzo flirts with Rosalinda. He wants to get together with her and keep her as a beard.

Helena Pereira - Episode 8

José Armando has become a rich and famous actor. Tabloids are full of news about him dating a beautiful woman called Valeria Gomez. He brought her over to introduce her to the family.

At the Pereira residence

Helena finds it hard to see José Armando so proud and pretentiousness. The worst thing is how he came to show off with the Valeria girl. People like them, who are born beautiful, don't need anything else. They drift through life so easily. They value nothing and they think they are more than other people. Helena doesn't hold back and gives the couple a piece of her mind.

Juan Pereira - Episode 8

At the Pereira residence

Juan is with Natalia. He is trying to talk to her about the old times. Including what led up to the accident. He suspects she is keeping something from him.

Juan realizes he doesn't love Natalia anymore. She is not the same person she was fifteen years ago. Juan truly loves only Maria. But he doesn't want to hurt Natalia's feelings, so he pushes his own feelings aside. Despite that, they still seem to find their way to the surface from time to time.

José Armando has become a famous actor and a rich man. He came to visit with his beautiful girlfriend Valeria Gomez.

Juan is jealous of his love and money and he is unable to feel happy for him. He has become bitter.

Maria Medina - Episode 8

At the Pereira residence

José Armando has become a famous actor. He comes to visit his family house with a new beautiful girlfriend Valeria Gomez. José Armando and his mother Maria do not get along anymore, they keep fighting.

Maria is happy Natalia has gotten better. At the same time, she is unable to cast away her feelings for Juan. Their love becomes hidden in fleeting touches and tender glances. They do not want to hurt Natalia.

Maria started taking pills again to cope with this difficult situation.

Maria is glad that both her sons (her son and her stepson) will get the inheritance. She hopes they will share some of it with her. She could use the money. If they forfeit the inheritance, it will all go to Miguel Lanz.

Since Radkéz's death, Maria became closer with her stepson Hernán. He is at Pereira's fairly often. Mainly after what the Lanzas did to him. Hernán is even closer to Maria than José Armando. Maria wants Hernán to be happy.

She sees it more clearly now than ever - happiness is about money, not about love.

Valeria Gomez - Episode 8

Valentina left abroad. In order to make her identification difficult, she had her face readjusted a little. No one will recognize her. She poses as Valeria Gomez. The surgery has made her incredibly beautiful. Her cousin José Armando is the only person who knows her true identity. He became a rich and famous actor. It was him who paid for the whole operation after all. They spend a lot of time together and they encourage and support each other. Tabloids following José Armando write that they are lovers.

Valentine misses her home. She convinces José Armando to go back together. Valentina poses as Valeria Gomez, José Armando's girlfriend.

At the Pereira residence

Valeria is glad to see everyone and she kind of hopes someone will recognize her. She is determined not to reveal herself; the consequences could be grave. She cries upon encountering her mother.

Even Carlos shows up at the Pereira house.

Valeria realises that she might finally get a chance with him, so she plays out all her charms on him.

She wants to arrange a meeting with him. And she won't take no for an answer.

Ramirez Pereira – Episode 8

After a long time, José Armando is coming home. He has become a famous actor. And he brought his new girlfriend with him - a beautiful Valeria Gomez. Tabloids are full of their pictures and stories about them.

At the Pereira residence

Ramirez is unhappy. He strives to reconnect with his rediscovered mother. They talk about love. Ramirez confesses to her that he loves Rosalinda and that she is his sister.

Carlos comes to see Ramirez. He wants to know where did Valentina go. Ramirez knows nothing about her and tells him off. He says his sister has gone mad and that it is good she is gone.

José Armando Medina - Episode 8

Valentina left abroad. In order to make her identification difficult, she had her face readjusted a little. No one will recognize her. She poses as Valeria Gomez. The surgery has made her incredibly beautiful. José Armando is the only person who knows his cousin's true identity. He became a rich and famous actor. It was him who paid for the whole operation after all. They spend a lot of time together and they encourage and support each other. Tabloids following José Armando write that they are lovers.

Valentina convinces José Armando to go back together. Valentina poses as Valeria Gomez, José Armando's girlfriend.

At the Pereira residence

José Armando lets everyone know that he is rich and famous. He is mad at his family for not believing in him. Valentina was the only one who has always supported him. He is angry with his mother the most. But it seems she is not well. She keeps taking more and more pills. José Armando tells her she is "nothing but a junkie". Hernández keeps proposing his inheritance to him. José Armando loathes him as well as Hernán.

Hernán Hernández - Episode 8

Recently, he has bonded with his stepmother quite well. José Armando has become a rich and famous actor. He arrives with a beautiful girlfriend, Valeria Gomez.

At the Pereira residence

But Lorenzo is all Hernán is able to think about. He tries to get closer with his stepbrother José Armando.

He confesses his problems to Maria and they debate on how they could impact his inheritance. He became very close to Maria. He only wants what is best for her. After the conversation, he decides to go for Lorenzo. And they said love did not exist! He tries to convince José Armando to accept the inheritance and help the family.

Adriana Salazar - Episode 8

Anywhere

Adriana does not have any specific tasks in this episode. With each new day, Adriana realises again and again that she is unhappy with Carlos and that she should have stayed with José Armando.

Natalia Pereira - Episode 8

Some time has passed since Natalia came back. She expected the welcome to be warmer. Meanwhile, José Armando has become a famous actor and he arrived to visit his hometown with a beautiful Valeria Gomez. She reminds Natalia of Valentina. But she hasn't seen Valentina for over 15 years and it is probably just the way she misses her.

At the Pereira residence

Natalia is trying to learn everything that happened while she was in a coma. She feigns amnesia and claims she remembers nothing.

Natalia talks to her son Ramirez about love. He confesses his unfulfilled love to her. Natalia reveals she is only feigning amnesia. But Ramirez has to swear he will not tell a soul.

Don Miguel Lanz - Episode 9

At the Lanz residence

Don Miguel spends his time with his love Helena. He is still upset he hasn't told her the truth yet. His ponderings are interrupted by the arrival of Natalia, who has had amnesia since she woke up from her coma. He even learns things he hadn't had a clue about and he defends himself futilely against false accusations.

Jorge Lanz - Episode 9

Anywhere

In this episode, Jorge has no specific tasks. Other than being evil and sarcastic with everyone and only harm, harm, harm.

Rosalinda Lanz – Episode 9

At the Lanz residence

Rosalinda continues her fake affair with Lorenzo Lorenz. Although she doesn't feel anything for him, she kisses him in the hopes of filling the void left after Ramirez. For some unfathomable reason, Lorenzo insists they only kiss in public. When they are alone, he is cold and distant, which Rosalinda finds equally unfathomable. She would like to know why he is like that.

When Rosalinda notices Ramirez saw her with Lorenzo, she feels ashamed. She realises how stupid she's acting and runs to Ramirez at the duck pond and explains everything to him. Of course he understands they cannot be together.

Carlos Lanz - Episode 9

At the Lanz residence

In this episode, Carlos spends his time with Valeria Gomez. At the beginning, he doesn't believe her, but she manages to convince him in the end.

Lorenzo Lorenz - Episode 9

At the Lanz residence

Lorenzo continues his fake affair with Rosalinda. If they kiss, it is only in public and only if someone else sees them. That is the only way the whole farce makes sense.

Hernán's confession surprises him. Lorenzo finds that his love for Hernán is immense. Lorenzo chooses to leave before his feelings get the better of him.

Helena Pereira - Episode 9

At the Lanz residence

Helena spends time with her beloved Don Miguel. She can see he is upset about something. She presses him to confide in her. In the end, she learns about the secret from an unexpected person. Helena loses her head and starts a fight at the end of which she breaks up with Miguel.

Juan Pereira - Episode 9

At the Pereira residence

Juan spends the beginning of the episode with Maria. They are kissing.

In the second half of the episode, Juan stays with Maria alone in the house. Maria is upstairs and Juan cannot get there with his wheelchair. After a while, something goes wrong with Maria and Juan exercises enormous mental effort to get up from his wheelchair, climb the stairs and rescue her.

Maria Medina - Episode 9

At the Pereira residence

Maria spends the beginning of the episode with Juan. They are kissing.

In the second half of the episode, Juan stays with Maria alone in the house. Maria flees from him upstairs, where he cannot get with his wheelchair. It is all too much for her. Her entire world crumbled down. She takes some pills and ingests them in front of Juan. She becomes unconscious.

Valeria Gomez - Episode 9

She also encounters her mother at the Lanz house. Valeria reveals herself to her mother and they fall into each other's arms.

Ramirez Pereira - Episode 9

At the Lanz residence

At the beginning of the episode, Ramirez comes to the Lanz residence. He must see Rosalinda at least for a moment. What he never wanted to see was Rosalinda kissing another man. He wants Rosalinda to be happy and he understands they cannot be together. But that sight ripped his heart right out.

He cries to the heavens, turns on his heel and wants to run away. However, he is stopped during his exit.

José Armando Medina - Episode 9

At the pond

José Armando comes to the pond where he encountered Adriana for the first time; he has never forgotten her. He still loves her and he is ready to reveal any secrets for this love.

He still remembers that Adriana used to pay Ramirez to pose as her boyfriend.

Hernán Hernández - Episode 9

At the Lanz residence

At the beginning of the scene, Hernán sees Rosalinda kiss Lorenzo. That sight ripped his heart out.

Hernán doesn't want to lie himself any longer and he admits to himself that he is gay. He is not afraid to come out publicly now. Grand gestures are decisive when it comes to love. Although it means losing a great inheritance, love comes first. He announces publicly that he is gay. He states that he forfeits his inheritance for love. He knows Lorenzo feels the same. They should be together!

Adriana Salazar - Episode 9

At the pond

She comes to the pond more and more frequently. She remembers her first encounter with José Armando. How could she ever have thought that true love didn't exist! That all that mattered was the number of men who loved her.

José Armando has become a famous actor. Every tabloid writes about him. He is with a beautiful girl called Valeria Gomez. Adriana knows she doesn't deserve José Armando. She wishes him happiness with Valeria.

Natalia Pereira - Episode 9

At the Pereira residence

A little after the beginning of the episode, Natalia walks in on her sister with her husband. She is shocked. All is lost, her dream about coming back has crumbled down. How could she be so foolish as to think that she would be able come back to her love, after fifteen years! They both betrayed her. Natalia screams her emotions out at the two. She admits she was only feigning amnesia and runs away from the house.

At the Lanz residence

Natalia is upset and cannot think straight. She storms in Miguel Lanz's house and publicly accuses him of all his crimes:

- The way he threw the Pereira family into poverty when he framed Camiliáno and made him a scapegoat. Innocent Camiliáno ended up in prison and died soon after.
- When she worked for Miguel as an accountant, she discovered that one of the Lanz companies was a drug factory!
- And because she discovered it, Miguel damaged the car to make her and Sofia crash! He didn't hesitate to sacrifice his own daughter-in-law for that!

She doesn't linger for long; she doesn't let anyone drag her into any debate. She leaves in a hurry (but she doesn't return back home).

Don Miguel Lanz - Episode 10

At the Lanz residence

Same as everyone else, Miguel is also invited to the garden party Roberto is throwing.

At first, Miguel listens to Roberto's monologue. After Roberto is finished (the spotlights goes off), Lorenzo has an opportunity to react to the situation.

Jorge Lanz - Episode 10

At the Lanz residence

All is lost. The secret with the drug factory has been revealed and Miguel will figure everything out with Natalia's help sooner or later.

However, Jorge still wants his revenge and therefore decides to take the final step. He invites everyone to a garden party. When everyone is present, Jorge reveals he has a bomb attached to his body! In the spotlight, Jorge has a long villain monologue in which he reveals all his motives and deeds and tells the family where Roberto is hidden.

- He is Roberto Lanz's twin.
- Miguel put him in an orphanage long time ago.
- Jorge studied under a Japanese Master of Vengeance.
- He established the secret drug factory within the Lanz enterprises a long time ago.
- When Natalia found out, he staged the accident.
- He was the one who pushed Don Miguel down the stairs.
- He beat Roberto and imprisoned him in the basement.

When Jorge admits to everything, he announces in slow motion that they are all going to die. Natalia runs out of the crowd. Their short fight results in an explosion that Natalia shielded with her own body. Both Natalia and Jorge are fatally wounded and they say their last words to their loved ones.

Rosalinda Lanz – Episode 10
