

Andrew

You are a year older than Kathie, the girl you like. You have known her for a long time and you started to feel strongly for her. You're absolutely sure that she likes you too.

Episode 1: Kathie

Scene 1: The Birthday Party

It's Kathie's 16th birthday. You all gathered by her house and are having a good time. Everybody brought her a present. You got her a teddy bear. It's a bit childish but that doesn't really matter -- you know she'll love it.

Scene 2: The First Date

You're having your first date with Kathie. You're both very nervous and you aren't very good at hiding it. She, on the other hand, doesn't seem to be paying you much attention somehow. What is she thinking about? You are in a sweetshop and it's pretty crowded here.

Scene 3: Lunch break

It's Friday, just before noon, and you have a Lunch break in school. You came to the class next to yours to discuss your evening plans with your friends; everybody wants to go to the dance club. It would be great if Kathie came too. You'd have a great chance to make a good impression.

Episode 2: Eve

Scene 3: Lunch break

Yesterday, you kissed Alice. You don't know exactly how it happened, but right now it's the only thing on your mind. Maybe it's actually relief, after all the trouble with Eve. She is clearly not well and, although you don't want to walk away from her right now, you just can't help feeling at least partially free. You want to take Alice to the club to see how things will develop. As usual, Eve is not going with you. And that's just fine. After all, she must not know about this! If only Peter hadn't seen you two kiss.

Scene 4: The Last Date

You're on a date with Eve. You are in the sweetshop you usually go to and, as usual, there are lots of people in here. Kathie has no idea, but you came here to break up with her. You just can't do it anymore; you can't take how she's changed. She's become weird, talking about a sister of hers that everyone knows she doesn't have. People make fun of her behind her back and you you've caught yourself doing it too. It is cruel, but you feel embarrassed for her. You have to end it. It's now or never.

Scene 5: Visiting Hours

You met up with Eve's mother and your other friends Peter and Alice in front of the ward. You brought flowers for Eve. You're desperate. You can't take it anymore. You feel that it's your fault, that you could have done something. You feel scared at having to see her in such a bad shape. You'd rather remember her the way she was before. Maybe it will be better this way. For all of you. Maybe coming here wasn't such a good idea after all. You don't even want to see her. You'll have to make the others understand your situation, to lessen the guilt you're feeling.
