

Peter

You and Kathie are schoolmates. You are pretty popular around the others, mainly because of your sense of humor. Apart from that, you have the gift of great empathy. You can feel what is happening inside other people. That's why they either hate you or love you. Ironically, you have a hard time showing your own feelings and you are always secretly in love with someone. This time it's Kathie. But you know how this is going to end up -- she will never know because you always hide your feelings and run away when things get intense.

Episode 1: Kathie

Scene 1: Birthday Party

It's Kathie's 16th birthday. You've all gathered by her house and are having a good time. Everybody brought her a present. You brought her a CD with her favorite music and you know she'll love it. Kathie is acting weird though, as if she was hiding something.

Scene 3: Lunch break

It's Friday, just before noon, and you have a lunch break in school. You are discussing your plans for the evening; everybody wants to go to the dance club. You're definitely gonna be there. You want Kathie to go too. Maybe she would see you in a different light, maybe you would build up enough courage to tell her how you feel. Since her birthday, she's been acting strangely though. She even talks about her sister now and then. That has to be a joke or something; everybody knows Kathie is an only child. You know something is not right and you need to tell somebody.
If you think it appropriate, this is a great scene to have an inner monologue. Wait for the right moment.

Episode 2: Eva

Scene 4: Lunch break

It's recess again and you're talking about your plans for tonight. It's strange, Peter kissed Alice. You've seen them and they know it. Peter is certainly going to break up with Eve and it'll be your shoulder she's going to cry on. Maybe then she'll finally understand that you are the only one who truly loves her and maybe she'll even get better. You wish she was coming with you to the club tonight. That would absolutely be a perfect opportunity and you are determined not to miss it.

Scene 5: Visiting Hours

You met up with Eve's mother and your other friends Alice and Andrew in front of the clinic ward. You brought Eve a CD with her favorite music. You are desperate. You can't take it anymore. You want to run away and hide somewhere like you always do. Maybe it would be better that way. For all of you. Maybe coming here wasn't such a good idea after all. You don't even want to see her. You'll have to make the others understand your situation to ease the guilt you're feeling.
